IvorY Jean Band

IvorY Jean has been packing venues throughout the Dallas/Ft. Worth Metroplex since its formation in 2000. This all-male band was carefully assembled with some of the best musical talent around. With Xavier Jackson and Marcus Roberts on keyboards, Jason Bell on guitar, Bryan Qualls on bass and veteran drummer Gino "Lock Johnson" Iglehart, IvorY Jean's style of delivering jaw-dropping musical performances is unlike any other. And if this blend of pure talent wasn't enough, IvorY Jean also features the smooth sounds of Smokie and Chris Traylor on lead vocals. IvorY Jean spins across all genres of music and encompasses an eclectic musical style that offers something for everyone. Offering tunes from the musical genres of soul, jazz, funk, pop, and R&B, IvorY Jean can rock any crowd. "IvorY Jean is the perfect all-purpose band," said J. Chris Hawkins, Esq., and IvorY Jean fan. "They are the band that I would hire for a wedding, corporate event, or my next party." IvorY Jean has played with some of the hottest talent in music. They have shared the stage with national recording artists Chante Moore, Brian McKnight, Jon B, Bobby Brown, Carl Thomas, Grammy-winners Erykah Badu and Roy Hargrove, and actor Malcolm Jamal Warner, just to name a few. They are the featured band for 30 Something Dallas and The Foundation, and are regulars at Dallas hotspots such as Brooklyn Jazz Café, Firewater, and TePheJez Nightclub. They have also played large concert venues including Nokia Theatre at Grand Prairie. IvorY JeaN was founded by Gino “Lock Johnson” Iglehart to inspire listeners and fans through music. “I wanted people to know that good music is still out there,” he said. “The purpose of the band is to put music exactly where it need to be, in the hearts of people. In a time where so much is going on in the world, IvorY JeaN plays real music that makes you feel good again.” IvorY JeaN’s slogan is ComeHearWhatMusicLookzLike, which means come see what real music looks and feels like.

Xtra Fly

It is rare that you find a group that commands a sense of unique personality, versatile style, and distinct diversity. Xtra Fly, a Dallas based group, is changing the definition of hip-hop and R&B. After several years of independent projects and under the direction of L’ Tarius “2-Man” Heath the group: (Ta’ Varius “Platinum” Heath, Derrick “Lil Dude” Butler, Rodney “Tin Man” Miller, Cedric “Ceddy Boi” Hughes, and Marcus “Cash” Butler) formed in 2007. These 6 MCs came together with the intention of bringing a different brand to hip-hop. The result is an original blend of fresh lyrics and crunk beats, a welcomed sound to sore ears.

Kertrina Dauway

Singer extraordinaire, Kertrina Dauway is a frequently requested Gospel Entertainer. She has been requested to sing at numerous corporate events, conferences and church events. She is also the main host of The World Famous House of Blues Sunday Gospel Brunch here in Dallas, Texas where she performs weekly before sell out crowds. Kertrina also has her own television show ResoundLIVE which airs weekly on Channel 34.1 and access34.tv

Malcolm “MAC” Hampton

Malcolm “MAC” Hampton was born on December 21, 1991 in Dallas, Texas. At the tender age of five, MAC began illustrating a keen understanding and appreciation of R&B music while listening to the “oldies” rotation of soulful hits. By age nine, MAC began captivating audiences while performing at local talent shows, festivals and countless public sector events. Today, this 17 year old has triple the ambition, passion and drive for success that embodies his 6’1 stature. His limitless potential, focus and love for music serves as a beacon for the plight his generation is set for. MAC is set to lead and catapult into the music industry with his melodic flow and symmetry.
