ARTICLE VIII

A. Every person who is a record owner of a fee or undivided fee interest in any lot within the Subdivision shall be a member of the Association (a "Member"). The foregoing is not intended to include persons or entities who hold an interest merely as security for the performance of any obligation. Membership shall be appurtenant to and may not be separate from ownership of any lot that is subject to assessment by the Association. Ownership of such lot shall be the sole qualification for Membership.

B. The Association shall have two classes of voting membership:

Class A. Except as provided below for "Class B" members, each owner of a lot shall be a Class A member. Each Class A member shall be entitled to one vote for each lot in which such member holds a fee or undivided fee interest, but in no event shall more than one vote be cast with respect to any lot.

Class B. Declarant (as said term is defined in the Declaration) shall be the sole Class B member and shall be entitled to five votes for each lot owned by the Declarant.

ARTICLE IX

The conditions and regulations of membership in the Association shall be determined and fixed by these Articles of Incorporation and by the Bylaws; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that no part of the net earnings of the Association shall ever be distributed or shall otherwise inure to the benefit of any Member of the Association (or any owner in the Subdivision); and FURTHER, PROVIDED, that in the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Association, whether voluntary or involuntary, the directors shall dispose of all property and assets of the Association, including, without limitation, all undistributed income earned thereon, after the payment, satisfaction and discharge of all liabilities and obligations of the Association, or the making of adequate provision therefor in such manner as they, in the exercise of their absolute discretion, and by majority vote, shall determine, however, such disposition shall be exclusively in the furtherance of the purposes for which the Association is formed, and the property and the assets of the Association shall not accrue to the benefit of any officer, director, Member, or any individual having a personal or private interest in the affairs of the Association or any organization which engages in any activity in which the Association is precluded from engaging.

ARTICLE X

No director of the Association shall be liable to the Association or its Members for monetary damages for an act or omission in the director's capacity as a director, except that this Article does not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for (i) a breach of a director's duty of loyalty to the Association or its Members; (ii) an act or omission not in good faith or that involves intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law; (iii) a transaction from which a director received an improper benefit, whether or not the benefit resulted from an action taken within the scope of the director's office; or (iv) an act or omission for which the liability of a director is expressly provided for by statute. If the Texas Miscellaneous Corporation Laws Act or any other statute is amended subsequently to the filing of these Articles of Incorporation to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Association shall be eliminated or limited to the full extent permitted by such statute, as so amended.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the Members of the Association shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Association existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have set my hand this \(\sigma\) day of

ay of August 200

Fred Phillips, incorporator
